Deaf Golf Australia History Book

We are pleased to announce work on the compilation of our hardcover history book from 1996 to 2021 is nearing completion. Hopefully it will be done in time before the ADGC Championships in August. It is no small feat but hopefully the many hours of painstaking work will be worthwhile. We wish to stress that it will not be comprehensive when the first edition is published. There will be some "missing photos" and unintended omissions only because we do not have ready access to all photos that are "out there". The good news is this will be a first run edition and there is a possibility for a 2nd issue edition in the near future. We hope to launch the book at the ADGC Championships which should be a timely celebration of 25 years.
